Mr. HAYDEN, from the Committee on Rules and Administration, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany S. Con. Res. 59]

The Committee on Rules and Administration, to whom was referred the concurrent resolution (S. Con. Res. 59) authorizing the printing of additional copies of the hearings entitled "Institute of Pacific Relations," having considered the same, report favorably thereon, without amendment, and recommend that it be agreed to by the Senate.

This concurrent resolution (S. Con. Res. 59) authorizes the printing of not to exceed 7,500 additional copies of part 1 and subsequent parts of the hearings entitled "Institute of Pacific Relations" held before a subcommittee of the Committee on the Judiciary.

The number of requests made upon the Committee on the Judiciary for copies of these hearings has approximated 5,000 for each part. These requests have come from business organizations, educators, students, libraries, papers, periodicals, professions, religious groups, and individuals, with the largest number of requests coming from individuals personally interested in the matter of Nation-wide internal security.

The printing of the additional copies provided by Senate Concurrent Resolution 59 would result in an estimated cost to the Senate of $37,000 to $40,000.
